Missouri Safe Schools - Section B

Submitting false statements or information relating to a student's disciplinary history is defined as a Class B misdemeanor. Students also face potential removal from school if false statements or information regarding residency or disciplinary history are given.

yes no 1. Has the student ever been charged or convicted with a felony? If yes, explain: _____

yes no 2. Has this student ever been adjudicated (appeared before a judge) due to committing an act, which IF committed by an adult would be one of the following: murder, 1st degree assault, rape, sodomy, robbery, distribution of drugs, arson, or kidnapping? If yes, explain: _____

yes no 3. Is this student currently under suspension/expulsion? (167.171.(3)(4)) If yes, explain: _____

yes no 4. Has this student ever been suspended/expelled from school? If yes, explain: _____

To the best of my knowledge, the above information is true and correct and complete as it pertains to the student's disciplinary history with regard to suspensions from school and to expulsions from any school for any offenses in violation of board policies relating to weapons, alcohol, and drugs or the willful infliction of injury to another person, and I understand that under Missouri law supplying false information is a Class B misdemeanor and may result with student dismissal from school and the parent/guardian being responsible for the cost of education for the child.
