

Bulletin, February 23, 2026

Honesty

- Monday
- FFA Pajama Day
  - Congratulations to Homecoming King & Queen, Andy Mattson & Kenzie Redden! And congratulations to the Seniors for the winning poster, 8th grade for the winning float, and the Seniors for being the overall Homecoming Spirit week winners!
  - Congratulations to Andy L & his team for qualifying for the State Robotics contest.
  - Chemistry Lab Field Trip to MWSU. Van leaves @ 7:00 a.m.
  - FCA meeting @ 7:50 a.m.
  - Girls District Basketball begins @ Stanberry. PV vs Worth County @ 5:00. Bus leaves @ 4:10.
- Tuesday
- Hats off to Agriculture. Wear your favorite hat.
  - FFA meeting during seminar.
  - Tri-Learnathon after school.
  - Boys District Basketball begins @ Worth County. PV vs Northeast Nodaway @ 6:15. Bus leaves @ 4:45.
- Wednesday
- Station by the Flag Day. Wear red, white & blue
  - Wings Field Trip
  - Character Strong during seminar.
  - Girls District Basketball semifinals @ 5:30 & 7:00 @ Stanberry.
- Thursday
- Drive Your Tractor to School Day. Wear farm or camo apparel.
  - Boys District Basketball semifinals @ 6:00 and 7:30 @ Worth County.
- Friday
- Blue & Gold Day. Wear school colors.
  - Girls District Basketball Championships @ 6:00.
- Saturday
- Hiking Club to Parkville Nature Sanctuary @ 8:00 a.m.
  - Boys District Basketball Championships @ Worth County @ 2:00.
- Mon. Mar. 2
- FCA meeting @ 7:50 a.m.
  - Read Across America 9:00-10:00
  - Girls Basketball Sectionals 6:00 PM @ Bishop LeBlond

Thought for the Week: "Being a first follower is an under-appreciated form of leadership...a first follower transforms a lone nut into a leader. We're told that we all need to be leaders. But that would be really ineffective. The leader is the flint, the 1st follower is the spark that really makes the fire." *Chris Stefanik

*Did you know...Men are 20% more likely to sneeze in a dusty room.